

PRIVACY NOTICE STUDENTS and VOLUNTEERS

Policy Statement

We are Curzon Crescent and Fawood Nursery School and Children's Centre Partnership. During your time with us as a student or volunteer we will use information that we gather for various purposes. Information that we hold in relation to you is known as your "personal data". This will include data that we obtain from you directly and data about you that we obtain from other people and organisations. We might also need to continue to hold your personal data for a period of time after you have left our organisation, in accordance with our Data Retention and Destruction Schedule. Anything that we do with your personal data is known as "processing".

This document sets out what personal data we will hold about you, as part of our workforce, why we process that data, who we share this information with, and your rights in relation to your personal data processed by us.

What information do we process in relation to our Students or Volunteers?

We will collect, hold, share or otherwise use the following information:

personal information (such as name, address, home and mobile numbers, personal email address, national insurance number, and emergency contact details)

absence information (such as number of absences and reasons, including information regarding physical and/or mental health) qualifications / training courses attended and, where relevant, subjects taught performance information (such as appraisals and performance reviews, performance measures including performance management/improvement plans, disciplinary or grievance records)

other information (such as time and attendance records, information in applications made for other posts within the school, the results of Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks), details in references the school receives or provides to other organisations, CCTV footage and images)

We will also use special categories of data including such as ethnic group, sexual orientation, religious or similar beliefs, political opinions and information about your health. These types of personal data are subject to additional requirements.

Where do we get information from about our workforce?

A lot of the information we have about our workforce comes from the individuals themselves. In relation to our students or volunteers we may also obtain information from college, University, previous employers, the DBS, consultants and other professionals we may engage, vetting agencies, other members of staff, our children or their parents, and publically available resources including online sources. In addition, we may obtain information from automated monitoring of our websites and other technical systems such as our computer networks and systems, CCTV and access control systems, communications systems, remote access systems, email and instant messaging systems, intranet and internet facilities, telephones, voicemail and mobile phone records.

Why do we use this information?

We will process the personal data of our workforce for the following reasons:

Where we are required by law, including:

- To comply with the law regarding data sharing (see further below)
- To comply with specific requirements under health and safety legislation, and any statutory codes of practices including equalities and non-discrimination
- Where the law otherwise allows us to process the personal data, or we are carrying out a task in the public interest, including:
  - To enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
  - To inform the development of recruitment and retention policies

- To safeguard our pupils and other individuals
- To ensure safe working practices
- In the interests of ensuring equal opportunities and treatment
- Where we otherwise have the consent of the student or volunteer

Please note, whilst the majority of processing of personal data of our workforce will not require consent, we will inform individuals if their consent is required and seek that consent before any processing takes place.

Why do we use special category personal data?

We may process special category personal data of our workforce for the following reasons:
To carry out our legal obligations in relation to employment law, where this is in accordance with our Data Protection Policy.

Where the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, including for purposes of equality of opportunity and treatment, where this is in accordance with our Data Protection Policy.

For the purposes of preventative or occupational medicine in order to assess an individual's working capacity and/ or the need for reasonable adjustments.

Where we otherwise have an individual's explicit written consent - subject to the restriction set out above on the use of consent in an employment relationship.

There may also be circumstances where we need to use your information in relation to legal claims, or to protect your vital interests and where you are unable to provide your consent.

Failure to provide this information

If our workforce fails to provide information to us we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations.

How long will we hold information in relation to our workforce?

We will hold information relating to our workforce only for as long as necessary in accordance with our Data Retention and Destruction Schedule. How long we need to hold on to any information will depend on the type of information.

Who will we share information with about our workforce?

We routinely share information about our workforce with:

- Local authorities, to assist them in the exercise of their responsibilities in relation to education and training, youth support and safeguarding purposes
- The Department for Education in compliance with legal obligations of the school to provide information about our workforce as part of statutory data collections
- Our professional advisors including legal and HR consultants

The Department for Education may share information that we are required to provide to them with other organisations. For further information about the Department's data sharing process, please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>.

Contact details for the Department can be found at <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>.

Rights of our workforce in relation to their personal data

All of our workforce have the right to request access to personal data that we hold about them. To make a request for access to their personal data, individuals should contact our in-school Data Protection Leads: Jainee Shah (School Business Manager) Jainee@fawoodcc.brent.sch.uk and Fiona Gaughan (Deputy Head teacher) Fiona@fawoodcc.brent.sch.uk

Please also refer to our Data Protection Policy for further details on making requests for access to workforce information.

Individuals also have the right, in certain circumstances, to:

- Object to the processing of their personal data
- Have inaccurate or incomplete personal data about them rectified

- Restrict processing of their personal data
- Object to the making of decisions about them taken by automated means
- Have your data transferred to another organisation
- Claim compensation for damage caused by a breach of their data protection rights

If an individual want to exercise any of these rights then they should contact our Data Protection Officer:
Deepti Bal DPO.Bal@bsp.london

The law does not oblige the school to comply with all requests. If the school does not intend to comply with the request, then the individual will be notified of the reasons why in writing.

Concerns and Complaints

Given the above, if you have any concerns about how we are using your personal data then we ask that you contact our Data Protection Officer in the first instance. You can also contact the Information Commissioner's Office should you consider this to be necessary, at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>.
